School Vote Set Saturday At Grass Lake

Voters in the Grass Lake school district go to the polls Saturday in a referendum to raise the educational fund 45 cents, from $1.04 to $1.49.

There are about 850 registered voters in the district and the only polling place will be at the school, from 12 noon until 7 p.m.

The 45-cent increase would raise taxes about $45 a year for houses assessed at about $10,000.

Supt. William Hart said yesterday that "right at this time things look very good" for passage of the referendum.

He praised the district's Parent Teacher Organization for "doing everything they possibly can to inform the public."

"We've experienced a great deal of success and our meetings have been well attended," Hart said.

Hart said that "every attempt at budget control has been utilized since 1966, when the present rate of $1.04 was approved."

The school's enrollment has risen from 222 to 320 since that time. Hart said that the costs of material and operating, and increases in staff and inflation have made it impossible to maintain present programs at the 1966 rates.

Enrollments in all grades at the school are high. They range from 27 to 38 from kindergarten through the third grade, and from 38 to 42 in most of the higher grades.

Hart pointed out that Saturday's referendum is not for the purpose of building classrooms.

"It is merely to provide funds to operate what is presently here," he said.

Shopping Areas Sure Of 60 Trees

Sixty trees already have been committed for the downtown shopping areas.

The report was given at the village board meeting Monday night by Bill Patterson, representing the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber is seeking commitments for 80 trees to beautify Main and Lake streets and the Plaza.

Patterson noted that the 1974 Antioch Community High School graduating class has donated a tree to be planted near the village hall. A plaque will recognize the contribution.

Champion Sequoits Honored By State Bank

The 19 young men who gave Antioch Community High School a great basketball season received one of their rewards Monday night.

They were feted royally at a banquet sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch.

The 17 players and two student managers were guests of honor at Lorenz's Smart Country House. Applauding them proudly were their parents, the school's cheerleaders, coaches and other guests.

The regional champion Sequoits had a 22-6 record last winter and won their conference title with a 13-0 record.

"I don't think any coach could be prouder of a team's accomplishments," said Coach Roger Andrews. "Not only were the boys deeply dedicated, but they had their parents behind them and they also were deeply interested."

Andrews announced he had just received word that two of his players, Mike Gutowski and Mark Andrews, have been named to the All-American High School squad selected by Coach & Athlete magazine of Atlanta, Ga.

Coach Andrews had an interesting view of next year's prospects, even though the team is losing some excellent senior players.

"I think with the taste of tournament that the juniors had, and with the sophomores coming up, who knows? It may be Antioch's first trip to the state," he said.

The guest speaker was Tyrone Walls, outstanding Antioch athlete of the middle 1960s, who is now playing football with Edmonton in the Canadian League.

Walls told his Antioch

friends:

"You really can't imagine how much you have helped me, and how I hold this dear to my heart."

He advised this year's high school athletes to "try to get into your own thing. Keep a goal -- a right goal -- in your mind and don't let people con you into straying from it. You should always have goals and dreams and strive to make them a reality."

Walls said he has been approached by the Chicago and Detroit teams of the new World Football League and wishes he could join one of them, but he has a contract in Canada. When that expires he thinks he might switch to the new league.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS...

Pennies are literally pouring into the State Bank of Antioch.

People are breaking open their piggy banks and taking advantage of the offer to exchange 95 cents in pennies for a new dollar bill.

The State Bank is attempting to relieve the nation's critical penny shortage.

If we get our pennies back in circulation, there shouldn't be a shortage. The Bureau of the Mint has produced approximately 62 billion pennies in the last 15 years, and is currently producing approximately 35 million per day -- almost twice as many as last year at this time.

The average life of a coin is estimated to be 25 years, so there should be a sufficient supply of pennies to meet normal demand.

For the Mint to continue producing vast quantities of pennies to replace those removed from circulation would be to continue incurring unnecessary government expenditures.

"I'm calling on every American to get the penny back in circulation and keep it there," Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint, said. "I'm urging schools, churches and charities to examine ways and means to involve their members in collecting pennies for deposit."

The price of copper has retreated, closing at $1.15 per pound on May 20. There will be no aluminum penny. The 62 billion pennies produced during the past 15 years have no numismatic value and because of the huge mintage they will never attain great value.

Nevertheless, speculators and hoarders of pennies have caused what seems to be a shortage of pennies in certain areas of the country.

Creating a shortage where it shouldn't exist can adversely affect every public spirited citizen, taxpayer and conservator of the earth's resources. It is inflationary should merchants start to round off sales to the next nickel due to lack of pennies to make change.

There are plenty of pennies. But they are in the wrong places.

It is estimated that over 30 billion pennies are in circulation -- doing the job for which they were intended. Somewhere in this vast country of ours, however, in excess of 30 billion pennies are in hiding. They are in dresser drawers, shoe boxes, pickle jars; most anyplace you can think of that will get them out of pocket and out of sight. They are unwanted, unused and unappreciated.

For the Mint to be forced to continue increasing its penny production to meet the

Ask the Governor

DAN WALKER

Q. What can you tell me about the state's vaccination program to reduce widespread disease?

A. The immunization program, directed by the division of disease control in the state Department of Public Health, distributes free vaccine to local health departments, doctors and hospitals for polio, measles, rubella, diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis.

Vaccine is provided to 47 local health departments with the understanding that they will not charge for it. In counties not served by a health department, clinics are set up temporarily and are staffed by members of the immunization program.

The goal of the immunization program is to assist in the immunization of the largest number of children at the earliest medically indicated time. Ideally, every child would receive the basic immunization by the age of two.

The effectiveness of the nationwide immunization thrust, which began in 1965, can be measured in the marked decrease in reported cases of disease. In the five years prior to 1965, a national average of 450,000 cases of measles were reported annually. In 1965 and 1966, this was down 50 percent; in 1968, only 22,000 cases were reported. This was up again in 1974, with 27,000 cases reported.

The comparison of cases reported in Illinois in 1950 and 1972 (latest figures available) also show a marked decline. Polio dropped from 1,941 to 0; measles from 19,223 to 4,656; diphtheria from 60 to 3; typhoid from 21 to 8 and pertussis from 3,339 to 110.

As the figures indicate, polio has virtually been eliminated since 1965. However, low immunization levels in children ages one to four have concerned health officials about possible widespread recurrence. They encourage all people through age 18 to complete the polio immunization series. It is recommended that polio myelitis vaccine be administered at or about ages two to four months.

Measles, the most common childhood disease, can be fatal. Before vaccine became available, about 400 measles deaths occurred annually in the nation. Rubella (also called 3-day or German measles) is a mild infection usually without complications. Its greatest danger is to pregnant mothers, who may pass it on to their fetuses.

It is recommended that measles vaccine be administered to all people ages one to 12; and rubella, ages one to ten, who are not already immune. Preferably these should be administered at age 12.

Diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis vaccines (DPT) are recommended for all children between the ages of two months and six years. Tetanus diphtheria (Td) is recommended for adults every ten years, or earlier in the event of accidental wound.

The 8-member staff of the immunization program are located throughout the state, advising local health departments, administering vaccine and informing the public about the program. Because of the decrease in the number of reported diseases, parents are not aware of the continuing need for immunization. However, health officials warn that if immunization becomes lax, these diseases could become widespread again.

They warn that all children should be immunized as soon as possible. Booster doses for polio and DPT are recommended before entering school.

If you need more information, write Dennis Olson of the division of disease control, Department of Public Health, 535 W. Jefferson, Springfield, Ill., (telephone: 217-782-3300).

What would you like to know about state government? Gov. Dan Walker welcomes your questions. Some, with the answers, may appear in this column. Letters must give the writer's name and address. Upon request your name will be withheld. Send to: ASK THE GOVERNOR, Illinois Information Service 201 W. Monroe St., Springfield, Ill. 62706.

70 YEARS AGO JUNE 2, 1904

Beswick's photo studio will be opened on June 14.

As many citizens have expressed a desire to have a Fourth of July celebration it has been decided to do so. Antioch has not had a celebration in many years, and efforts are being made to have one of the old fashioned kind, with all the usual games, horse races and fireworks.

50 YEARS AGO JUNE 5, 1924

Five large and beautiful bird houses were placed on the estate of C.K. Anderson, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Williams of Channel Lake.

Business was pretty good over the holidays considering the weather.

20 YEARS AGO JUNE 3, 1954

For her alertness in summoning aid that saved the lives of three children, Mrs. Virginia Carney, Antioch telephone operator, received the Vail citation of the Bell Telephone Co. at a dinner in her honor at the Colony House. She arranged for aid to reach three children who had been overcome by smoke and coal fumes.

10 YEARS AGO JUNE 4, 1964

The Antioch Rescue Squad is getting ready to celebrate its 25th anniversary on June 13. The squad will hold its annual dance at the Firehouse with King Jaros' orchestra furnishing the music. A Bicycle and Buggy Decorating Parade is planned by the Chamber of Commerce.

Hickory School closes its door permanently at the end of this school year. Graduates and former teachers are planning a get-together at the school on Sunday.

Moose Celebrates 25th Anniversary

Last Saturday evening, the Antioch Moose Lodge No. 525 celebrated their 25th anniversary. Mayor Wilton was on hand to congratulate the lodge on its progress over the years.

Charter members who received special recognition were: Mr. and Mrs. William Brook, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Manzardo, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cermak, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anzinger and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meyer.

Pilgrim Ronald Polson was the Master of Ceremonies for the evening and the guest speaker was Pilgrim Lewis Caokes from Aurora, Convention Coordinator for Mooseheart.

A buffet dinner was served followed by dancing to the music of Art Smejka and his band.

Forget Dear Abby, Just Ask Gerard

By JERRY PFARR

It has always been disturbing to me that women have a monopoly in the "advice to the lovelorn" field.

Some of those sticky situations require the cool, detached and objective observations that only a man is capable of making.

So, with some reluctance, I have decided to share and answer some of the personal mail I have received, which previously has gone unpublished.

DEAR GERARD:

My mother-in-law hates me. She is constantly taking my wife's side in our arguments and harping at me just because I bowl four nights a week, play poker with the boys, fish all summer and go hunting whenever I get a chance. What can I do to square things with my mother-in-law?

"Bullseye Bob"
Bug Tussle, Tex.

Dear Bullseye:

Take her along on your next hunting trip.

DEAR GERARD:

My wife ignores me completely. She spends all of her time either glued to the TV set, reading movie and fan magazines, or raving about the charms of Robert Redford, Burt Reynolds, Rock Hudson, and Paul Newman. The only time she talks to me is when she orders me to carry out the garbage.

Dominated Keokuk, Iowa

Dear Dom:
Let Redford, Reynolds, Hudson and Newman carry out the garbage.

DEAR GERARD:

My husband treats me like a slave. He won't help with the dishes, and won't buy me a dishwasher. Even though I do most of the housework, he insists on having me in a pretty dress, with the fireplace crackling and soft music playing when he comes home for dinner. The other night I wanted to watch Lawrence Welk, but he turned on the baseball game. I don't know how to change him.

Eve
Loves Park, Ill.

My Dear Young Lady:

You obviously overlook the fact that you promised to love, cherish and obey your husband. You were put on this earth to serve him. Remember, he is the lord and master. His job is to make the living, and yours is to make the living worthwhile. Apparently you need more help than I can offer in this brief space. Please send for my free book, "He's Okay, You're Not Okay." Enclose $39.98 for handling.

DEAR GERARD:

My husband is a beast. Let me start by telling you how I met him. He was on top of the Empire State Building, swatting down airplanes...

Name Withheld,
Kokomo, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Kong:

I am sorry I had to cut your letter short, but that was really a nasty thing to say about your husband. I am trying to make this a high class column. Please don't write again.

I WANT TO apologize to the hundreds who have written to me, asking for advice and solutions to their problems.

But, look, I simply don't have time to help everybody. If I can't get around to answering your letter, you will just have to fend for yourself.

OF TRAVEL

Q. In the interests of the national economy, should I cancel my 1974 vacation?

A. Not at all. It could actually hurt the economy to curtail your travel plans now. The $61 billion travel industry is a vital branch of American business and if tourism is cut off, the repercussions could effect employment all across the country.

Q. Will the energy crisis make it too difficult for me to make travel plans now?

A. You can still have fun if you make your plans with care—and expert advice. Your travel agent can be a tremendous help. If you're up in the air about transportation, it might put you on cloud nine to know that there are still plenty of airline seats available, and your travel agent is the one who can help you into one of them.

From Our Readers

(Editor's Note: The following letter arrived during the weekend from Enid L. (Sheen) Kreidler of 5209 S. Yakima Ave., Tacoma, Wash., 98408. We thought it was of particular interest and that some of you might want to write to her.)

Editor, Antioch News:

Recently my sister, Doris Maca of Bellvue, Washington, was in Antioch to arrange the interment of my mother's ashes at the Oak Knoll Cemetery. While visiting there in the place of our birth, my sister stopped at the Antioch News office and had a small article regarding my mother, Ruth (Van Duzer) Sheen, put in the Antioch News. You folks kindly offered to send a copy to my brother, Cmdr. W. John Sheen USNR (ret.) and myself, Enid L. (Sheen) Kreidler.

Receiving this newspaper has been one of the outstanding events of my whole 55 years of living! I doubt that anyone there can appreciate how this small paper has affected all of our lives way out here in this Evergreen land of Washington.

I left Antioch in 1934; my family moved to Waukegan which seemed like a distant and large city to me at the age of sixteen.

I graduated from Emmons Grade School in 1933, attended A.T.H.S. my freshman year and graduated from Waukegan High in 1937.

Reading the news of 50 years ago I recognized all the names, and the paragraph about Elizabeth King reminded me of winters in Antioch. As children we always hitched rides on the runners of the large horse-drawn sleighs.

We lived on the same street as the milk factory and Parker Pen Company, so there were many sleighs going by. We swam in King's pond in the spring and ice skated on it in winter. We picked hickory nuts and wild asparagus; and we rode ponies.

And on Mondays we got a free ice cream cone at Reeves drug store. We bought penny candy at Webb's Racket Store.

It seemed like we were related to everyone in town. My grandfather, Walter Judson Van Duzer, was one of twelve children - he was born on the Maple Lawn Farm (family farm) 2 miles north of Antioch across the state line, I think, near Crystal Lake. It is now a restaurant, "The Dutchman."

The Hardins were cousins, also the Cremmins, Wiltons, Youngs, Davises, as well as the Sheens and Curtises from Trevor, Wisconsin.

I want to subscribe to the Antioch News for the next 6 months and mentally travel back to my childhood.

If there is anyone living in Antioch that would remember we five Sheen kids, I would like to correspond with some of them.

Sincerely,

Enid L. (Sheen) Kreidler
5209 Yakima Ave.
Tacoma, Wash. 98408

P.S. If any of the Antioch people are coming to Washington this year we would very much like to have them stop and visit. If they would write I might be able to arrange some local sightseeing and possibly other accommodations. Phone: GR 2-1709.

On Matters Of Taste

Many people traveling for the first time miss one of the most sensuous aspects of leaving home—foreign food! Here are some hints to help you get a taste of the best part of travel:

1. If you don't understand the menu, have the waiter explain it. This can save you from expecting a steak and having to wriggle out of eating fried eels instead!

2. Remember that dining hours and customs can change from place to place. The English, for instance, have early morning tea before breakfast and afternoon tea before dinner. When in Rome you'll have to do as the Romans do—lunch between one and five and dine at nine!

3. Experiment with new foods. Every place has a specialty—in Paris take a flyer with pressed duck. In Greece, you needn't be chicken about the taste of chicken-lemon soup. In thirty countries around the world, you can dine on local dishes as well as American fare, all prepared by the clever chefs at Holiday Inn!

4. Don't overtip. You won't prove anything except that you don't know any better. About 15 percent of the check is most probably proper, and in many places it's automatically added to the bill.

Fortified with these tips for eating away from home, you should be able to really get your teeth into traveling with taste!

In Surrey, England, some people still believe that too much lettuce in the kitchen garden will prevent a young wife from having children!

IT'S A WELL KNOWN FACT THAT VETERANS CONSISTENTLY MAKE BETTER STUDENTS. SEVERAL COLLEGES REPORT THAT VETERANS ENROLLED IN THEIR PROGRAMS OUT PERFORM OTHER STUDENTS BY ONE GRADE HIGHER!

A big Get Well to John Horn, who is in Victory Hospital.

On May 25th Otto Berg of Oakwood Knolls celebrated his 90th birthday with a small party given by his wife Alma for their friends and neighbors. Helping him celebrate were his

Plans for Teen Canteen

The Apache Parent Teacher Organization of the Antioch Upper Grade School, in conjunction with Dave Booth, Bob Lipinski, Paul Epner, Steve Alberts, and John Estep, teachers at the school, have announced the formation of a year-round social program for junior-high-age residents of District No. 34.

This would include junior-high-age students from any parochial or private schools provided they reside within District No. 34 limits.

The program, known as Teen Canteen, will provide supervised recreational and social activities. Presently the program is set up to include two co-ed nights every month in which there will be dancing, ping pong, bumper pool, regular pool, air hockey, chess and checkers, and other board games in addition to general socializing.

One night each month will be "boys only" and one night each month will be "girls only" when, instead of dancing, gym activities will be available.

The program, to be held at the Upper Grade School, would be conducted evenings from 7 to 10 p.m., and will start on Thursday, June 27. Thereafter, it will be held every Thursday night except the week of July 4th.

current extraordinary demand is wasteful. Wasteful of a natural resource — copper — that cannot be replenished by man. And wasteful of the taxpayers' hard earned money. One billion pennies returned to circulation will save the taxpayers $10 million.

If just 15 billion pennies could be lured out of hiding, the Mint, at current production figures, wouldn't have to make pennies for almost two years and it would represent a saving of $150 million.

This is a challenging project. It will give every American family a chance to help control inflation, protect the environment and cut government expenses.

The Town Crier

Hear ye!

I've finally discovered the worst road in the world. It's got to be highway 59 between Antioch-Fox Lake.

With all the bad roads in the area, it wasn't easy to give 59 that distinction. But it earned it.

A fellow gave me an interesting philosophy the other day.

"If it's true that we profit from our mistakes," he said, "why not make more mistakes and increase our profit?"

I HEAR THAT Vi Johantgen of Vi's Yellow Bird is going to be on the radio "live" on Sunday afternoons, starting in July. She's going to do a program with disk jockey Leo Kalish of WZBN-Zion, WKZN-Kenosha.

A lively polka music show on Sunday afternoon. Right on.

ANNIE MAE tells me that a bachelor is a person who has more beer in his refrigerator than milk.

He's also a guy who can't put anything down without putting it on top of something else.

I'VE BEEN to a lot of sports banquets in my life and have been served a lot of mediocre meals. But over at Lorenz's Monday night they put on a fantastic banquet for the championship high school basketball team. That roast beef and those ribs were out of this world. Super affair the State Bank put on for those fine young fellows.

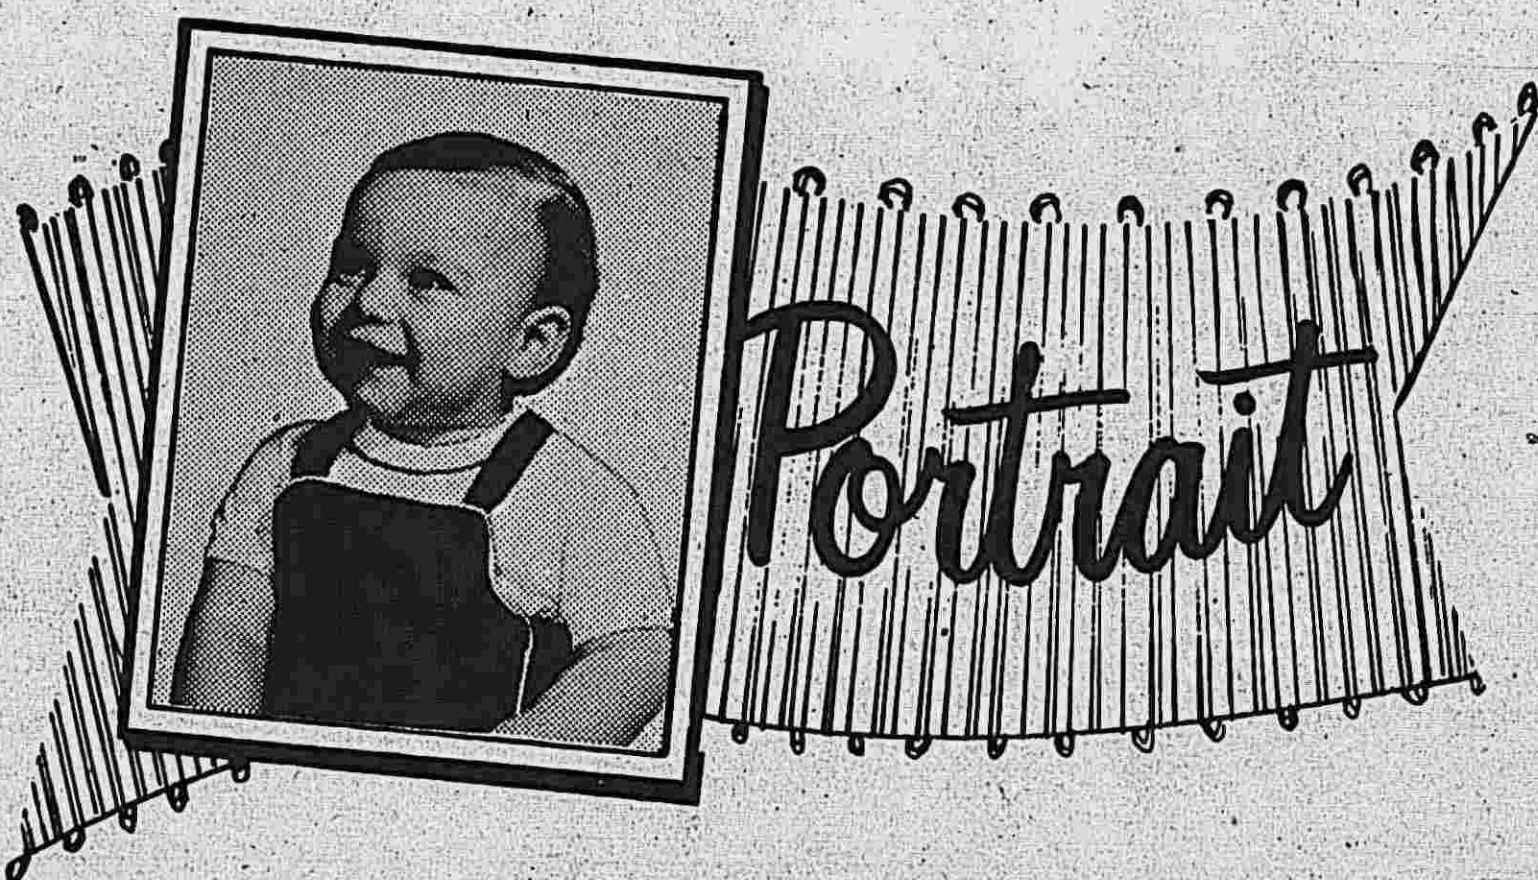

Ty Walls, the guest speaker, got up to talk and said he didn't have a formal speech.

"I think the world is great when everyone is informal and natural," Ty said. Then he stood up there for about a half hour, talking and answering lots of questions, informally and naturally, and did a delightful job of entertaining the crowd.

IT'S JUNE BRIDE month again and a friend of mine is wondering how come it takes a man three years to pay for giving his daughter away.

Not only doesn't money go as far as it used to, but almost half of it never gets to you in the first place.

SAFETY REGULATIONS - Carry on Luggage - Government safety regulations affecting all U.S. domestic airline carriers, issued by the Federal Aviation Agency limits carry-on luggage and related personal belongings to items that can be stowed under a passenger's seat. Exempt from these regulations are ladies handbags or cameras, and a reasonable amount of personal clothing, reading material. All other carry-ons, including briefcases, hat boxes, wig boxes, cosmetic cases, musical instruments and packages, must be of such dimensions that they may be securely stored under the passenger's seat. Maximum dimensions are 6" x 16" x 18". If the items do not meet the physical dimensions for under-seat storage they will have to be checked providing they are suitably packed. These regulations in the interest of the passengers safety will be strictly enforced by ALL airlines.

I suggest that you hand carry as little as possible since there will be security inspections of ALL carry-on luggage by ALL airlines which will delay you that much more on making your flight. This is also why everyone is required to be at the airport one (1) hour prior to flight departure.

Lindenhurst News

Schools out and there's nothing to do? Well, any student or even adult, living in the village of Lindenhurst, who find themselves seeking some sort of activity will be given their choice of many activities to participate in or enjoy this summer.

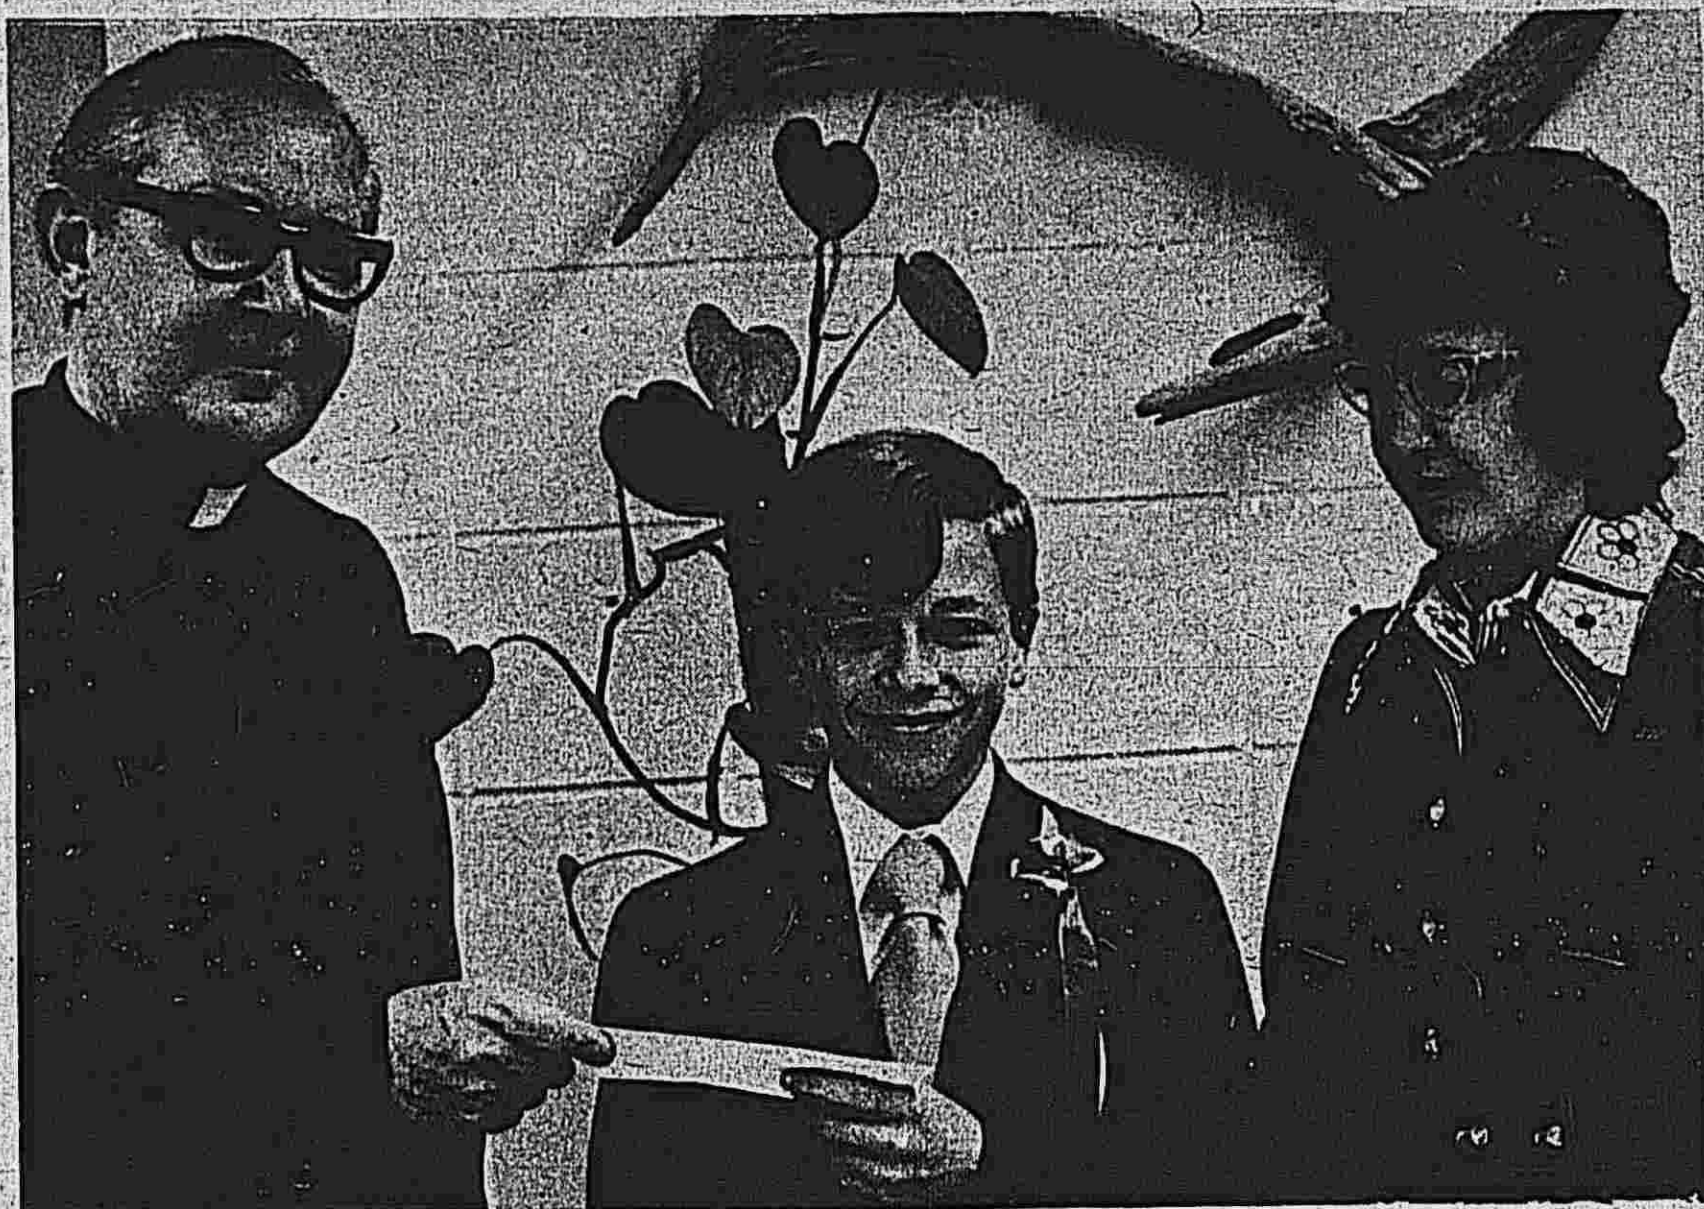

A recently formed volunteer group of citizens called the "Citizens Recreation Committee", is hard at work, with the Lindenhurst Village Board, finalizing various types of classes, field trips, and even two public awareness plays. These plays will be presented at a small admission price on July 27th at 8 p.m. and July 28th at 2 p.m. for the general public at the Lindenhurst Civic Center. Mr. Charles Brown will hold auditions for any interested young person in grades 6-12 who live in Lindenhurst on June 13 from 4-6 p.m. at the Lindenhurst Civic Center.

Classes in baton twirling and tumbling are being offered for pre-school and elementary students through the 6th grade. Field trips for any interested persons to the Milwaukee Zoo on June 20, a Chicago baseball game in July and Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry in August are also planned. Other planned activities include a Junior Olympics Day in August, a bike hike in July, a street dance and possibly coed volleyball.

There will be an activity center available every Wednesday for anyone from the age of kindergarten and up on a scheduled basis. This schedule allows children from kindergarten through 5th grade to have a set place to come to between the hours of 9 and 11 in the morning and play with other children their age, utilizing their own imaginations or whatever games being offered they choose to play. Anyone from 6th grade and up will have these same premises for their individual use from 1 to 4 in the afternoon. The committee will have a paid instructor on the premises during these hours for general guidance and suggestions.

Anyone interested in teaching or volunteering to help in any area are encouraged to come to the Civic Center during registration on June 13 between the hours of 9-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. or call 356-8934 during those hours. Detailed information will also be available during registration hours.

Free Church Presents Footprints in Stone

An exciting new documentary motion picture entitled "Footprints in Stone" will be shown at The Antioch Evangelical Free Church, Tiffany Road and Highview Drive, Antioch on Sunday, June 9, 1974 at 7:00 p.m.

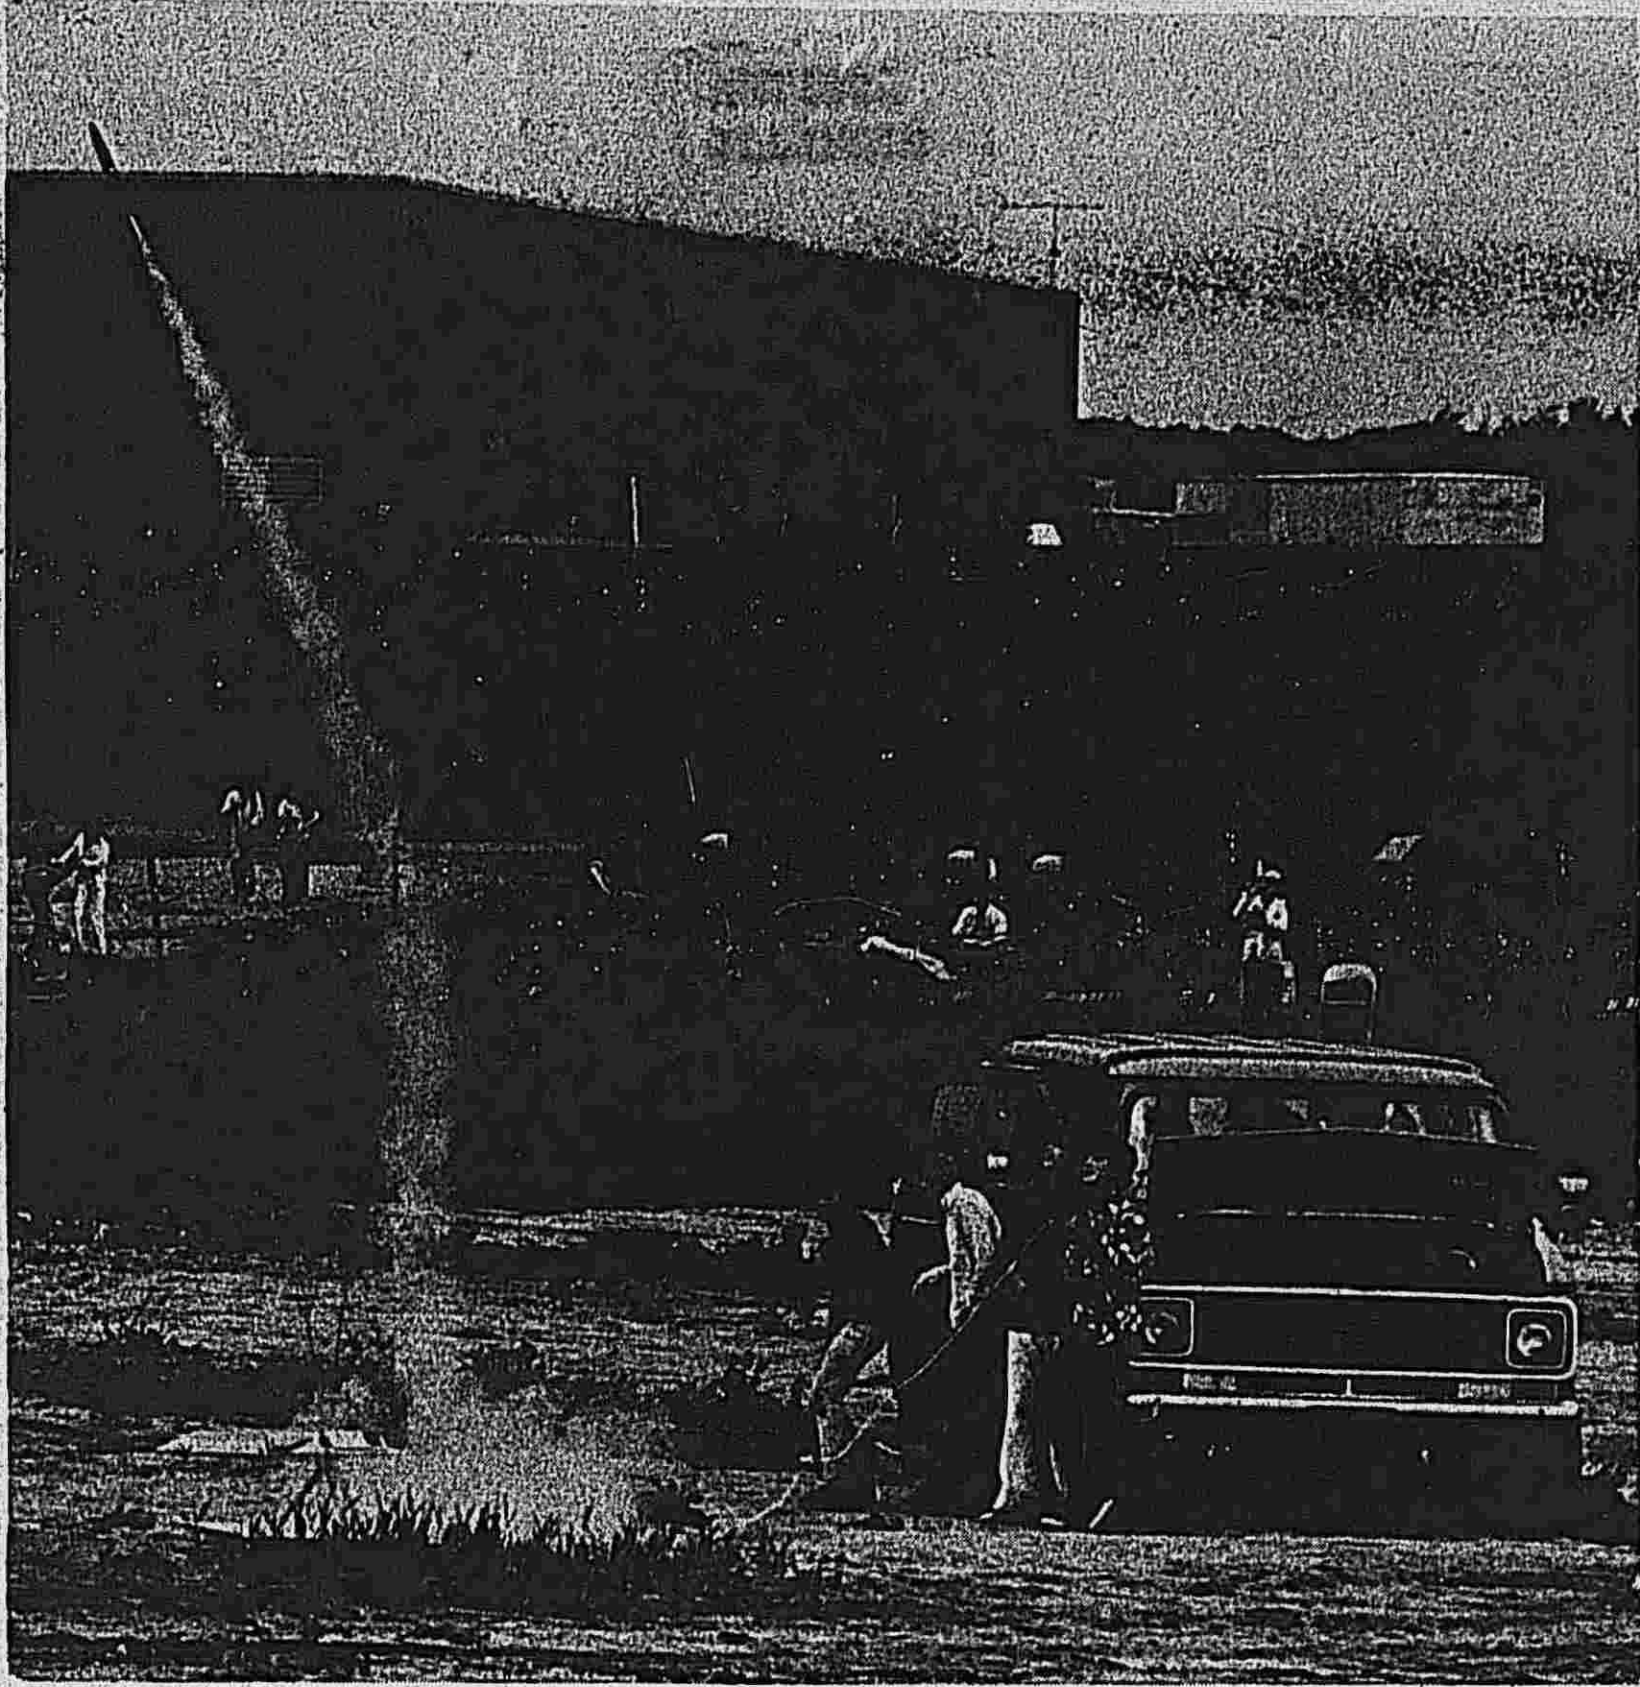

Produced by Films For Christ Association, "Footprints in Stone" depicts a research team's battle to learn the secrets of the Paluxy-Texas fastest-flowing river. Bulldozing, sandbagging, flash floods and the colorful narrative of oldtimers all add to the excitement and interest of this outstanding documentary film. However, the high point is the team's discovery of man tracks in the same rock stratum with dinosaur tracks.

Everyone interested in the Bible and science will want to see this film.

Lots of Interest in Rocket Project

The 7th grade rocket-launching project at Antioch Upper Grade School attracted a lot of attention last week.

Photographers from the Chicago Tribune and Sun-Times showed up to record the event for their newspapers.

Nearly 400 persons, including students, were on hand. Three students sang the National Anthem and then the student flight director introduced celebrities.

Mayor Robert Wilton launched the first rocket and the second was sent soaring by school board members Mildred LaPlante and Gail Heath.

Some of the rockets apparently reached heights of about a half-mile.

After the rocket launching, the teachers had another project for the students this week -- one in problem solving. How to design a contraption in which you can drop an egg off the school building without breaking it when it lands.

The Faces of Evie

By EVALYN ROZEK

"Boys, do we have surprise for you! Since Johnathan is eight years old today, we thought it would be nice if he treated eight friends -- plus his little brother -- to a bowling party! Doesn't that sound like FUN?"

O.K. men, into the car. Let's count noses. Christopher, Daniel, Freddy, Andrew, Jamie, Timothy, Joey, Johnathan and Mi-Michael? Michael? Oh, Michael, what are you doing under the dashboard? Of COURSE there's room for you here. Come sit next to Mommy.

...All right now, if Freddy will stop sticking his feet out of the tailgate, we'll be off. Oh, Daniel, no, you MUSN'T hang your baseball cap on the rear view mirror...

NO WRESTLING! I MEAN IT! ANYBODY CAUGHT WRESTLING GETS UNDERWEAR NEXT CHRISTMAS!

...Ah, here we are now. Pile out, men, and PLEASE don't shove! There's a great big puddle -- oh, look what you've done to poor Christopher! Christopher, those jeans aren't NEW, are they?

Timothy, what is that wiggling under your jacket? My goodness, what a DARLING spaniel! Yes, he is SWEET, Timothy, and Scamper is a fine name for a puppy, but, Timothy, he WILL have to wait in the car...

...Boys! Boys! Wait for the "Walk" signal! Johnathan, hold on to your brother's hand. Andrew! Jamie That's the wrong DOOR! We don't want to go to the bar; we want to go BOWLING, don't we?

...Now, if you boys will just give me your shoe size, I'll take care of that while you find a ball that fits your hand. Let's see, that's two fours, two four-and-a-halfs, three fives, one three-and-a-half and a two...

Daniel, don't bother to exchange your shoe. I think Freddy has your other four. He doesn't? Well, you'll just have to bowl with one four and one four-and-a-half, the shoe man doesn't seem to be in a very good mood today...

WATCH IT WITH THOSE BALLS! NO practicing in this part! And NO WRESTLING!!!

All right, birthday boy, you're first. My goodness, it's going right down the MIDDLE, but it sure is going SLOW, isn't it? Michael, don't TOUCH that; that's the RESET BUTTON. Johnathan, don't cry; of course you can have your turn over...

...If you guys promise to definitely stop wrestling, I'll get you each a glass of pop. See, you just call it in on this phone. I'LL DO IT!!! Oh, Andrew, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to slap your hand, I thought it was JOHNATHAN'S...

...Ah, here we are. Four cokes, two seven-ups, two root beers and an orange. DON'T TOUCH THAT ONE, IT'S MINE! See, you just set them in these little holes...

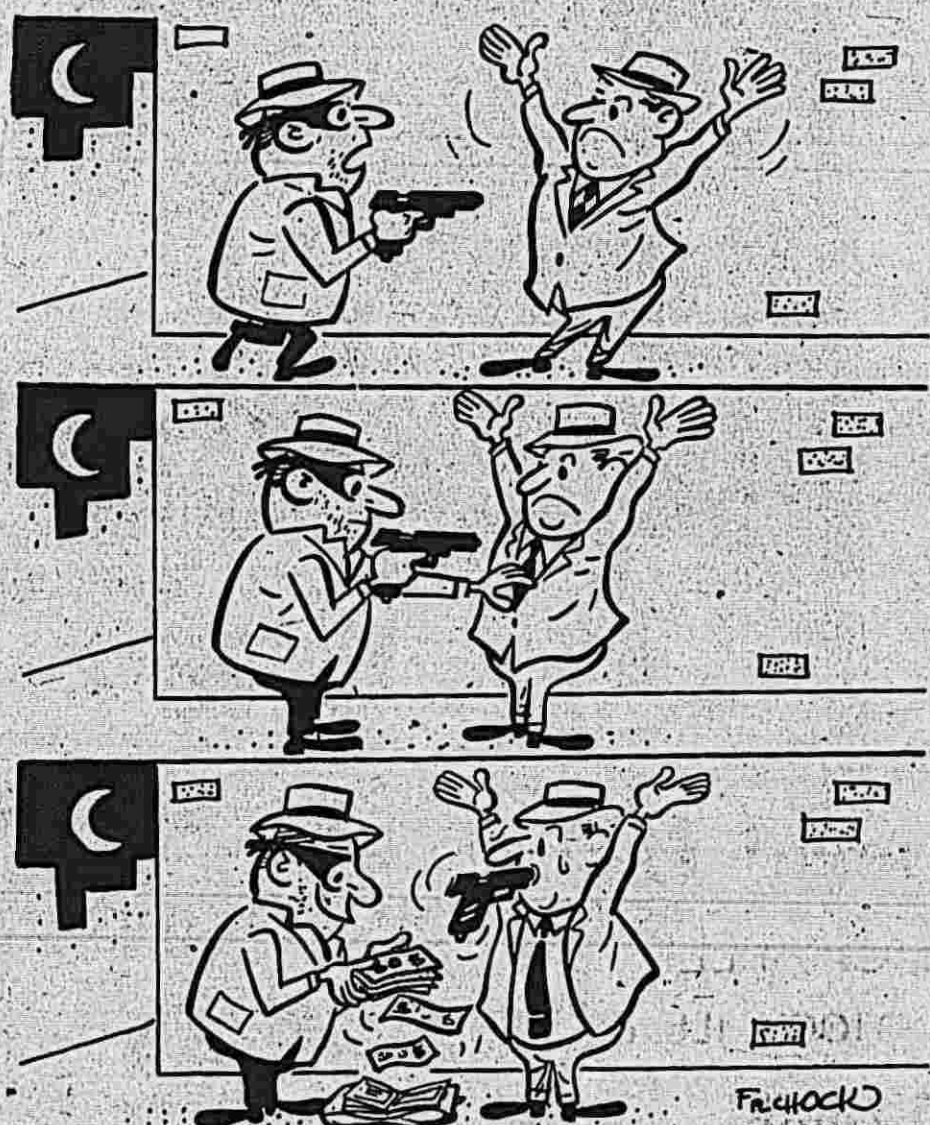

...My goodness, what's that PUDDLE in alley eleven? Has someone spilled his seven-up? Oh, SCAMPER, how did YOU get in here? Timothy, you take him right back to the car! I'll clean up the mess.

...Well, what do you know, it's the tenth frame already. Joey, please stop crying. Thirteen is a GOOD score for the first time. Now, as soon as Michael throws his last ball, we can go home...Michael? Michael, you look TERRIBLE. Michael, what do you MEAN, you drank the pop from everybody's glass? Oh, Michael, you're not going to be sick on the pile of coats, are you?

Johnathan, call the lady and ask her to bring your Mother another one of these. Johnathan, tell her to make it a double will you please?"

Air Coolers, Humidifiers Go Together

Chicago (NFS) — Some 1.2 million families will install central air conditioning systems in their homes this year, according to industry estimates.

And, if they're smart, the same number of families will include a power humidifier as part of the air conditioner installation to make their home climate conditioning more complete.

"Humidification is as much a necessity as heating and cooling for comfort and protection of the home and its contents," explained Bill Hamilton, president of Ultimate Products, Inc., a leading humidifier manufacturer.

Angie Brings National Honors to Antioch Woman's Club

Mrs. Daniel (Angie) Maras of the Antioch Woman's Club received national honors last week in Minneapolis at the General Federation of Woman's Club national convention.

For the past three months Angie has been competing in a sewing contest sponsored by G.F.W.C. and Spadea Couture patterns. In March, she won the district competition and went on in April to win the state title.

Last week, Angie represented and accepted the national honors for the Antioch Woman's Club.

Each spring, the sewing contest encourages women to be creative and sew the ideal costume for the "all around club woman." Last year, Angie was the state winner and the prizes included some lovely reversible couture fabric by Renel of Italy. Inspired by this beautiful fabric, she knew she could create a winner. Angie said her philosophy is, "You can do it if you really believe you can" and she did. The national winner was made from Spadea Pattern No. 71031, an Eduzquiza Original.

It was a real challenge to make this ensemble as one side was sewn on the machine and the other side by hand.

Elegance and superb hand tailoring completed the dress and jacket ensemble, which is completely reversible. Some days things just didn't work out, she said, but she always kept in mind that "success is achieved and maintained by those who keep trying."

Angie has probably made the only outfit like this in the world and will finally get to show it to the members of the Woman's Club at their opening luncheon in the fall.

'Hindsight's Better Than Foresight'

By FATHER KEUSAL

The business of the local clergyman like other professionals is his fellow man. It seems a shame that more people don't take advantage of his services.

Most people need a listening ear. They need someone that they can confide in. Most people, all people would be more exact, need a friend. The clergyman can't be a friend, a significant other, to all his parishioners in the strict sense of the word but he can help people to open themselves up so that they will be able to find that significant other, someone to whom they can share their innermost self and fill those lonely times with friendship and personal growth.

To have your clergyman help you means, of course, that you'll have to talk about yourself. This is what the basic problem of loneliness is all about. You have to share yourself or more correctly you have to learn to share yourself. You have to take the risk that you might be accepted and you might not be accepted. The clergyman as a counselor will accept you and help you to take the risk in finding a significant other.

This means that the clergyman may tell you things that you might not like to hear but its only in facing the truth and overcoming "your being locked within yourself" that the problem of loneliness will be taken care of. To know yourself is one of the greatest riches that a person can have.

Recreation Programs At Area State Parks

Carl Amundsen, Fourth Grade, Antioch Grade School.

PM & L's "Sound of Music" opens soon

PM&L's current and eventful Season 13 will reach its climax when the long-awaited musical production, "The Sound of Music," opens on Saturday, June 22, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street, in Antioch. Succeeding performances will take place on Fridays and Saturdays, June 28 and 29, and July 5 and 6. Curtain time for all performances is 8:30 p.m., and reservations should be made by calling 395-9702.

"The Sound of Music" has been a perennial favorite among musicals ever since it first opened on Broadway 15 years ago. Its poignant story, set in Austria at the time of the Nazi Anschluss of 1938, is told with striking music and a colorful array of characters. The PM&L production is directed by Ken Smouse, with Lynn Zaehler as choreographer and Tracy Teltz presiding over the orchestra pit.

In the PM&L cast, Maria is played by Mary Beth Bental, Ken Smouse himself is Captain Von Trapp, and Eva Harper is the Mother Abess. Terri Rosol, Anita Cooper, Jonathan Smith, Carmi Zaehler, Jenny Beese, Bob Ciecholinski, and Margaret Purfeerst are the Von Trapp children; and Rolf is played by Robert McCasky. Others in the cast include Mary Chris LaKome as Elsa Schraeder; Tom Hausman; Max Detweiler; Ricky Apostol; Frau Schmidt; Hank Apostol; Franz; Tim Shields; Her Zeller; and Don Beveroth, Admiral Von Scheiber.

Thus, both old and new faces combine in bringing the crowning production of PM&L's Season 13 to the stage. "The Sound of Music" is obviously a major event of the current season. Reserving seats early is the best insurance against being disappointed by sold-out performances.

Antioch Coed Reaps Honors

NAPERVILLE -- Wendy P. Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen, 477 First St., Antioch, was among the athletes honored at the 1974 athletic banquet at North Central College in Naperville.

Miss Jensen was elected by her teammates to receive the most valuable player trophy for her performance as a guard on the women's intra-collegiate basketball team. This was her second year to be awarded the trophy.

Miss Jensen also won an athletic scholarship award presented to each senior who has earned three or more varsity letters and who has achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher out of a possible 4.0. She has a cumulative average of 3.945.

Women's coach Bev Thornburg presented Miss Jensen with the Cleo Tanner Memorial Scholarship Award for her academic achievement and leadership in women's athletics.

She also was presented with the Bill Shatzer Memorial Award by NCC athletic director Al Carius. The award, originating in 1954, is given annually to the graduating senior who best exemplifies high standards of athletics, scholarship and good citizenship. Miss Jensen is the first woman to be awarded the trophy.

Earlier this year, Miss Jensen was named for the second consecutive year to the honorary fraternity of "Outstanding College Athletes of America." In addition, she was nominated for the fraternity's Hall of Fame.

Miss Jensen is a 1970 graduate of Antioch High School and is majoring in physical education at North Central.

The Checkered Flag

WAUKEGAN, -- Bobby Wawak made his first appearance of the season at Waukegan Speedway Sunday and won a heat race and the 30-lap feature.

Wawak took the feature lead at the green flag with Bob Anzinger in tight pursuit. The red flag came out in the 5th lap when Bob Dotter and George Dukas slammed into the pit wall. Both cars were knocked out of the race.

On the restart Wawak opened up a sizable lead until Bob Roper eased into second spot on the 15th lap. Ten laps later Roper was glued to Wawak's back bumper giving it the supreme test the final laps.

Wawak's win was a popular one according to the fans and it was the first ever at Waukegan for the 33 year old Villa Park driver.

Bob Anzinger finished in third place and also carried the checkered flag in the fast heat and semi-feature race.

Next Sunday night a powder puff derby for the ladies in the hobby cars will be the added attraction, and in two weeks the first demolition derby of the year will take place in front of the grandstands.

WILMOT, Wis. -- Dick Duston made it three for five here Saturday night by winning the 25 lap feature event for the IRA Super Modified cars.

Duston was followed across the line by Aaron Solsrud, Ron Marish, and Gene Erdmann.

Solsrud, who started at the rear of the pack, nearly caught Duston on the last lap, but finished about a car length behind.

In the sportsman division, Joe Gresk won the event with Duke and Sid Norton taking second and third.

Fast time went to Duke Norton, his fifth in five starts. Five dollars has been posted for any driver who can beat Norton in qualifying. A dollar will be added to the kitty each week until Norton is beaten.

Sequoits Do Some Hitting But Lose 13-5

Antioch's Sequoits suffered a 13-5 loss to Lake Zurich because of the lack of pitching strength. The high school team used four pitchers in six innings.

Antioch scored in the first inning on doubles by Mike Perrone and Russ Albano. But by the last of the second, Lake Zurich had moved ahead 5-1.

Antioch got two runs in the fifth when Ron Sheedlo tripled and Dirk Dietz followed with a double. Frank Pleviak then lashed a double to score Dietz.

Later in the game Terry Lear also clouted a double for Antioch.

The Easy Season

When warm weather rolls in like frothy blue surf, thoughts often turn to picnics, backyard barbecues, the whole free and easy life of casual entertaining, relaxing and enjoyment. Make the food and drink suit the mood: good and easy so the host and hostess can have fun too.

Pack your picnic cooler with a generous variety of cheeses, meats, hardboiled eggs and salted "love apples" — also known as baby tomatoes — crusty French bread and fruit.

For a patio party with a difference, try hunks of marinated lamb. Serve with hot rolls, crisp tossed salad, and mushroom kabobs.

Don't forget the wine. Americans are fast discovering what Europeans have long known: Wine makes the meal, especially one like Brillante, the light refresher from Spain's Bodegas Bilbainas.

Two great ideas in one, Brillante Blanco (white) and Rosado (rose) can go with whatever food you fancy. Medium-dry Blanco is smooth, well balanced, voluptuous yet delicate, with a flowery bouquet. Rosado is semi-dry, soft, mellow and fruity. Either fits right in with fine, unfussy summer entertaining!

It's time to dust off your power mower again. But before you start work review the safety rules and avoid accidents. 1) Clear the lawn of sticks, stones, wires and debris—they could be thrown by the blade. 2) Don't lend your machine to anyone who doesn't know how to operate it. 3) Never let children use a power mower—or any power tool. 4) Don't operate the engine where carbon monoxide fumes can collect (i.e., the garage).
